AFTER-HARVEST FESTIVITIES

NEXT YEAR'S CARNIVAL WILL BE A NEW DEPARTURE.

Karnival Krewe Takes the Initiative and Calls a Meeting of All Parties Interested to Perfeet a Plan.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kansas City Karnival Krewe held at the headquarters of the association last evening it was the unanimous epinlon that the after-harvest festivities of succeeding years must eclipse all past efforts in that direction in Kansas City. The board of directors of the association had prepared a plan, which, after a thorough discussion, was adopted without a disserting vote. The directors' plan calls for a convention of all the principal commercial and civic organizations interested ir the advancement of Kansas City to be held at the rooms of the Commercial Ciub Monday evening. November 23, when an organization is to be formed to embrace in s membership all these bodies and secure united effort to make the future after harvest festivals of Kansas City more at-tractive and attractive for a longer period than have been any of the many attract-ive festivals of the past.

While the details of next year's festival are to be arranged by the organization to grow out of next month's convention, it is the consensus of opinion among the stockgrow out of next month's convention, it is the consensus of opinion among the stock-holders of the K. K. that it should cover a period of not less than ten days and per-haps two weeks. The officers of the K. K. were instructed last night to turn over all the assets of that association to the new organization when formed. The following statement was given to the public last night:

"Headquarters K. K., Oct. 20, 1897. "Headquarters E. R., Oct. 28, 1891.
"Upon the recommendation of the board of directors, the following plan of action was unanimously adopted at a shareholders' meeting of the K. K., held this evening:
"Whereas, It is patent to all that our fall

'Whereas, It is patent to all that our fall festivities have advantageously advertised the wonderful possibilities and resources of Kansas City to all the inhabitants of the fertile domain for many miles around; and, "Whereas, Kansas Cityans are always setting face toward progress and the accomplishment of greater things; and, "Whereas, No class of business men are more determined to dare and do for this, our beloved city, than are the supporters of the K. K., who for four years have devoted much of time and business ability toward making our fall festivities worthy of our city, which is e'en now the metropolis of this great and rapidly developing Scuthwest; and.

"Whereas, We recognize the 'handwriting upon the wail' that Greater Kansas City demands greater effort, greater expenditures of time and money, a greater and more gorgeous caravansary and a grander and more protracted season of after-harvest festivities; therefore, be it "Resolved, by the stockholders of the Kansas City Karnival Krewe Association, in shareholders' meeting assembled. Madrid, Oct. 20.—A dispatch from Co-runna says that Marshal Blanco prior to embarking yesterday for Havana to as-sume his new responsibilities as governor-general of Cuba, made the following state-

"I go to Cuba with full confidence in the efficacy of the new programme to insure immediate and certain success. My military and political action I shall develop simultaneously. I have not been instructed to maintain any reserve regarding the intentions to bestow the full autonomy offered by the Liberal party when I was in the opposition.

opposition.

"I have consulted the government about the divisional command, but, so as to have more time for political affairs, I wished to be accompanied by generals like General Parrado, who, as second in command, will bear the brunt of the military action, and General Pando, who will direct the campaign at the head of the army.

"I cannot fix a date for the termination of the war. One of my generals has expressed himself confident of returning victorious in seven menths. Matters might take a turn to confirm this surmise, but if all ends well it will make no difference even if we do take a little longer to reach

Just before a recent dinner given in honor of a colonial magnate, says an English paper, a young swell, whose chief claim to distinction seemed to be the height of his collar and an eyeglass, addressing a stranger, said:

"Beastly nuisance, isn't it? Spoke to that fellah over there—took him for a gentleman—and found he had a ribbon on his coat; some blooming head waiter, I suppose?"

pose?"
"Oh. no," replied the other, "that's Blank, the guest of the evening."
"Dash it all, now is it?" said the astonished swell. "Look here, old fellow, as you know everybedy, would you mind sitting next to me at dinner and telling me who everyone is?"
"Should like to very much," replied the other man, "but you see I cannot. I'm the blooming head waiter!" Her Own Cake, Too.
